From Teachers and Schools:

"Wonderful choice of cool Classical Music"

"[Classical Jam was] excellent in the balance of audience participation and crowd control- this is the key to success"

"The variety of talent, men, women, and diversity of selection of music. TOP NOTCH GROUP!"

-Eisenhower Elementary School, IA

"The musicians were eager to listen to my students and very excited about helping them become better musicians"

"Classical Jam stayed longer than we expected. They talked with students and parents. We appreciated the extra time and effort"

"Classical Jam exceeded our expectations."

-Pleasant Valley High School, IA

From Presenters:

"The performance was absolutely breathtaking, and concert-goers were very impressed with the professionalism and perfectionism of the performance. Thank you very much for the opportunity to host this talented quintet."

-Davenport Public Library, IA

"The technical excellence of each individual member combined with the camaraderie and friendship within the group truly makes you a delightful group to watch."

"Everywhere Classical Jam visited...you gave an energetic performance. At each site I liked how you involved the audience in your performances, and taught them that Classical Music can be fun!.. Also memorable were your workshop for teachers, and Classical Master Jam, a master class in which all the students- cello, violin, viola and flute- came together at the end and jammed with the professionals."

-Quad Cities Arts, IL
